

4 May 2014 –3rd Sunday of Easter

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today.

In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Luke 24.13-35 and the response after it is read is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Hymns this morning: Call to Worship – Psalm 116.1-14

Opening hymn - #32

Prayer hymn – #426

Closing hymn - #443

All studies are back:

Tuesday – The Women of the Well – 10am

Thursday - The Book of Revelation - 10:30am or 7:00pm.

Interfaith Outreach Association is adding a new service of transportation for the blind & visually impaired to their doctor appointments & grocery stores. This is a great ministry opportunity to those who like to drive, help those in need and have a bit of flexibility. To get more information see Katie Epley.

KAIROS Prison Ministry Spring Weekend May 15-18th. Cookies are needed by Sunday, May 11th. Recipes and instructions are at the Welcome Center. Those wishing to attend the closing ceremony need to submit their application by 4 May.

Please continue to submit any prayer requests for inclusion on the Prayer List. Please submit this if possible by Thursday.

Sermon Notes

The Progressive Nature of Believing

Luke 24.13-35

Three truths:

1. Life is not always _____.

2. Belief is never _____.

3. Jesus Christ is _____ the Cause & Effect.
