

21 September 2014 – 15th Sunday after Pentecost

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Matthew 20.1-16 and the response after it is read is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 27.1-9

Hymns: Opening #11 Prayer #108 Closing #104

Bible Studies start this week:

Ladies of the Well –Bad Girls of the Bible– Tuesday, 10:00am or 7:00pm
The Book of Romans - Thursday 10:30am or 7:00pm

Our Fall Festival is coming up October 18th. We need everyone’s help! There are signup sheets in the foyer if there is a specific place you want to work. Please help us spread the word about this event. We also need yard sale and bake sale items. You can bring in yard sale donations any time and store them in the adult Sunday school room. Baked sale items can be dropped off on Friday, Oct 17th or brought with you on the 18th. Please label all baked goods with what is inside and any allergy information, if needed (for instance say Banana Bread includes walnuts.) We need both whole and sliced items. We will take anything homemade – pies, cakes, cookies, brownies, breads, muffins, salsa, jelly, etc Please take and post several of the posters found at the Welcome Center!

Please continue to submit any prayer requests for inclusion on the Prayer List. Let Pastor Tom know of any changes.
