

26 October 2014 – Reformation Sunday

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today.

In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is John 8.31-36 and the response after it is read is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 46

Hymns: Opening #98 Prayer #576 Closing #656

Bible Studies start this week:

Ladies of the Well –Bad Girls of the Bible– Tuesday, 10:00am at the Church or 7:00pm at the Burn's House (203 Chelsea Dr. Forest)

The Book of Romans - Thursday 10:30am or 7:00pm

All Saints Day will be remembered next Sunday. Please let Pastor Tom know, today, of any who died this year that you would like included as we look to the God of Life!

The next Kairos Missions weekend is Nov. 13-16. The need is 100 dozen cookies for this ministry by Sunday, 9th of November.

Our Annual Congregational Meeting will be 6 November at 6:00pm. This meeting is open to all. Please keep in prayer.

Please sign up for meals for the Eggleston's. There is a sheet at the Welcome Center. This is a very helpful and appreciated ministry.

We are now participating in a new program at Kroger. There is no cost to you and you only do a yearly sign up to tie your Kroger plus card to the Well. There are information sheets in the Narthex.
