

2 November 2014 – All Saints Day Sunday

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today.

In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Matthew 5.1-12 and the response after it is read is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 34.1-10,22

Hymns: Opening #24 Prayer #346 Closing #172

Bible Studies start this week:

Ladies of the Well –Bad Girls of the Bible– Tuesday, 10:00am at the Church or 7:00pm at the Burn's House (203 Chelsea Dr. Forest)

The Book of Romans - Thursday 10:30am or 7:00pm

All Saints Day is 1 November and during our service today we will be remembering those who have passed into Glory. May we confess that through Jesus Christ we are all held in God’s love.

Our Annual Congregational Meeting will be this Thursday evening at 6:00pm. This meeting is open to all. Please keep in prayer.

The next Kairos Missions weekend is Nov. 13-16. The need is 100 dozen cookies for this ministry by Sunday, 9th of November.

There are sign-up sheets at the Welcome Center to provide meals for families going through surgery recovery. Please prayerfully participate in this very helpful and appreciated ministry.

We are now participating in a new program at Kroger. There is no cost to you and you only do a yearly sign up to tie your Kroger plus card to the Well. There are information sheets in the Narthex.
