

Welcome to

28 December 2014 - 1st Sunday after Christmas

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Luke 2.22-40 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 111

Hymns: Opening #181 Prayer # 315 Closing #182

Bible Studies are canceled until the week of January 5.

Thank you to all who purchased poinsettias. They can be taken home any time starting after church today. Any poinsettias left after church on January 4th will be taken to shut ins. There is a sign up sheet in the narthex for anyone willing to help water the flowers while they are here.

This Advent we will be participating again with the Society of St. Andrew. There are devotional booklets and coin banks at the Welcome Center. We will collect and dedicate the offering next Sunday, 4 January.

We are trying to provide dinner once a week to the Egglestons while Nancy is going through chemo. A sign up sheet for the first two months is in the Narthex. Thanks to all for helping.

Thank you for all the cards, gifts and goodies that were given to me for Christmas. You are absolutely the most kind and generous people I have ever had the honor of pastoring. I Love you all, Pastor Tom
