

Welcome to

Sermon Notes

Fixing the Brokenness

Psalm 130

7 June 2015 Second Sunday after Pentecost

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Mark 3.20-35 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 130

Hymns: Opening- #122 Prayer - #92 Closing – #615

Bible Studies this Week –

Women's Study – Praying God's Word – Tuesday – 7:00pm

The Burns' home, 203 Chelsea Dr. Forest

Summer Studies: Wednesdays – 1:30pm – Early Church History

Thursdays 10:30am or 7pm - Denominations

We are beginning two new Summer studies. Schedules for each are at the Welcome Center. Come as you can, ready to learn together!

Dave and Bea Gardner are at their Wisconsin Lake house now until October. There is a card on the back table in the Sanctuary for them. Please sign it and we will be sending it in a few weeks. Thanks.

Sin is Brokenness:

- Breaks our Relationship with God – Gen.3
- Breaks our Relationship with Others – Mark 3
- Breaks our Relationship with Self – II Cor. 4

How is Brokenness Fixed? - Psalm 130

1. Know you are _____ vs. 1-3

2. Know _____ can fix it – vs. 4

3. _____ Him to Fix it. vs. 5-8

By waiting:

> with hope

> with particularity

> with abandonment

> for _____ !

The Rev. Dr. Tom Bryant, Pastor
The Rev. Alan Hill, Evangel
Jon Williams, Minister of Music
Post Office Box 2565
Forest, VA 24551

434.534.9355
434.660.7341
434.944.3611
theWELLchurch316@gmail.com
www.AttheWELLchurch.com