A “Wet” Life

Psalm 1

14 June 2015 Third Sunday after Pentecost

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Mark 4.26-34 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 1

Hymns: Opening- #344 Prayer - #588 Closing – #511

Bible Studies this Week –

Women's Study – Praying God's Word – Tuesday – 7:00pm

The Burns' home, 203 Chelsea Dr. Forest

Summer Studies: Wednesdays – 1:30pm – Early Church History

Thursdays 10:30am or 7pm - Denominations

We are pleased to have Jonathon Bobby bring a gift of worship through song today. Please keep both Jonathon and our own Jon in prayer as they seek to lead us in worship through music. Also, keep Jennifer and the other Readers in prayer. They are not just “helping out” during the service. They are offering us the Word. Prayer for Pastor Tom as he preaches is requested that he would have succinct clarity. We all are joining together in holiness and awe to receive the Gift of God in Christ Jesus! This is the most important hour of our week – truly, the Lord's Day!

We are beginning two new Summer studies. Schedules for each are at the Welcome Center. Come as you can, ready to learn together!

Dave and Bea Gardner are at their Wisconsin Lake house now until October. There is a card on the back table in the Sanctuary for them. Please sign it and we will be sending it in a few weeks. Thanks.
