Sermon Notes

6 September 2015 15th Sunday after Pentecost

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Mark 7.24-37 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 146

Hymns: Opening- #104 Prayer – #169 Closing – Back of Hymnal

Bible Study – Intercessory Prayer, Part II – Thursdays – 10:30 am
7:00pm

Ladies Bible Study – are at the half way mark of the study on Tuesday evenings of Experiencing God and will take a break by NOT meeting on September 8th. The Lord is very present with this study! Please continue to keep them in your prayers! They will resume, Tuesday the 15th.

Our Fall Festival is less than a month away (26 Sept). Please begin inviting friends & family. There are posters available at the Welcome Center.

Pastor Tom's new Bible Study, a look at what the Bible teaches on the things we believe will begin on Thursdays, 17 Sept. See Welcome Center for the schedule. On the two Thursdays prior (3rd & 10th) Pastor Al will teach on “Intercessory Prayer: The Call to Stand in the Gap.” We will examine the scriptural basis of interceding for others, and explore our purpose; is interceding a gift, a responsibility, or both. All Thursday sessions are 10:30am or 7:00pm.

Please give information for the newsletter to Glenda. Thanks!!

!!!!Out of Darkness Walk – 3 October 2015!!!!

It's time to renew Kroger Cards. Please see back of Prayer List.

Next week, Glenda will be gone. Please bring a breakfast dish as we “pot luck” our morning fellowship time. Thanks!
