The Tough Thing About Promises

Acts 1.1-11; 19; Ephesians 1.15-23

8 May 2016 Ascension of the Lord Sunday

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Luke 24.44-53 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 47

Hymns: Opening #122 Prayer #443 Closing #446

Men's Study Group - “The Mind of Jesus” - Tues. 7pm - Church
Thursday Bible Study – 10:30am or 7:00pm

Today is Andrew Foster's last Sunday as LU is breaking for the summer. Thanks, Andrew, for the gift of your music that you blessed us with!

On May 10th the Tuesday night men's group will have a dinner for men who attend the Tuesday evening study& any men who may be interested in learning more about the study. Please contact Calvin Ashwell or Dave Gardner if you are interested in attending or have any questions.

“Why do you do _____ in worship?” This question has often been asked about our worship service about different things. On 28 May we will have a Mini- Retreat. From 9am – 2:00pm we will explore the Bible's teaching on worship, interact with the worship leaders, and, have lots of time for questions and answers. A light breakfast and lunch will be provided. Please plan to attend and bring your questions!

Please see the additional sheet at the Lectern and at the Welcome Center outlining our celebrations for our 5th Anniversary. One side is for your reflections. Please take the time to do this so all will be blessed by the entire Body of Christ here at the Well. Thanks.

Therefore, we can approach Promises,

in Gentleness...

with Confidence...

Expectantly...
