Sermon Notes Pr. Tom Bryant

16 October 2016 22nd Sunday after Pentecost

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Luke 18.1-8 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 121

Hymns: Opening #429 Prayer #559 Closing #154

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this week:

Women's Group – Tuesday – 7:00pm – at the church

Men's Group – Tuesday – 7:00pm – The Apostles

Thursday Bible Study – Isaiah – Thurs. 10:30 am or 7:00pm!

Upcoming Opportunities:

- Good News Club begins October 19th. We need prayers & volunteers!

- Mini Retreat on Prayer – November 19th – 9am – 2:00pm

Once again the cookie Angels of The Well are being asked to provide edible messages of God’s redemptive powers, in order that forgotten men can know that our GOD forgets no one. The Well has always astounded me with the magnitude of your generosity for this cause. Please bring package home baked cookies to the Well by Sunday November 6th.

We are putting our directory online. This will allow us to immediately update it and for you to access it more easily. There are several that we need forms from. If you are not on the list at the Welcome Center and would like to be; please, fill out one of the forms adjacent to the list and turn it into Pastor Tom or Jon Williams. Thanks.
