Sermon Notes

God's Grammar Session

25 December 2016

Nativity of our Lord

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is John 1.1-14 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 2

Hymns: Opening #192 Prayer #196 Closing #181

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this week: There will be no studies this week.

Upcoming Opportunities:

- Thanks to all who participated in the Angel Tree program. This coming year, please remember your child & their families in prayer.

- The Online Directory is up and ready to be accessed. Information sheets for using it are at the Welcome Center. This is a password protected directory and therefore only our members will have access to it. Please see Dave Gardner for more information.

- If you purchased a poinsettia, feel free to take it home. All those left will be taken to local shut-ins.
