

Welcome to

12 February 2017 Sixth Sunday after Epiphany

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Matthew 5. 21-37 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 119.1-9

Hymns: Opening #535 Prayer #413 Closing #385

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this week: Woman's Group – Entrusted – 6:30pm –
Men's Study – James – Tuesday – 7:00pm
Thursday Study – Isaiah – 10:30am or 7:00pm

Neither the Women's Group nor the Men's Study will meet this week due to Valentine's Day. They both will resume next Tuesday the 21st.

Our church follows the ancient practice of reading, studying and preaching the readings of Scripture that are called the Lectionary. This unites us with Christian churches around the world and throughout history all studying the same passages. You can get the Readings for the upcoming Sunday each Monday so you can read and study through the week. If you would like, send an email to jreynolds@piedmonteye.com Talk with Jennifer if you have any questions or would like a hard copy. Thanks.

New Breakfast Time Starting 5 March: 8:15 – 9:15am!

Sermon Notes

Change, Growth and Where You Look 1 Corinthians 3.1-9

Change vs. Growth

Constant Change is a sign of _____

Stages of Immaturity:

1. _____ - vs 3

2. _____ - vs. 3

3. _____ - vs. 4

Looking at the “ones” vs. Looking at the _____!

(immaturity, jealousy, strife, arrogance, One)
