Sermon Notes
The True Life
Dave Gardner

7 May 2017 Fourth Sunday of Easter

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is John 10.1-10 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 23

Hymns: Opening #81 Prayer #524 Closing #587

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this week: Thursday Study—Isaiah 10:30am or 7:00pm

Thanks for Pastor Al for leading the services today and covering while Pastor Tom is at a Conference in Florida. Please keep both in prayer.

Thanks for Dave Gardner for preaching the sermon today. Please refer to the additional scripture sheets for his sermon.

Thanks also for all who attended and helped at the OLD TYME PICNIC yesterday. I know a good time was had by all.

1. What is THE True Life?

2. What Lord's Prayer Teaches about THE Life?

1. The Vertical Priority

2. The Horizontal Dimension

- In Relation to God – He is My Father

- In relation to Others – You are My Family

- In Relation to Self – I am Alive!
