Sermon Notes What do You Want?

I Peter 2.1-10

14 May 2017 Fifth Sunday of Easter

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is John 14.1-14 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 146

Hymns: Opening #1 Prayer #554 Closing #516

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this week: Thursday Study–Isaiah 10:30am or 7:00pm

Welcome to all those we celebrate today on Mother's Day. We are richly blessed by those who have demonstrated a motherly love and care for us. We have a special gift for every lady today. Make sure to get yours after the Service.

Congratulations to all our Graduates. In particular, we salute Martha Bryant for obtaining her Associates Degree in Nursing from Centra School of Nursing!

Thanks to Pastor Al covering for Pastor Tom as he was in Florida for a Conference and a few days of vacation.

Thanks to Dave Gardner for preaching the sermon last week. It was a blessing.
