Being Sent!

Matthew 10. 5a, 21-33

25 June 2017

3rd Sunday after Pentecost

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Matthew 10.5a, 21-33 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 91.1-10

Hymns: Opening #81 Prayer #447 Closing #627

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

The Thursday Bible Study has ended for the Summer but will pick back up after Labor Day.

Men's Study – Tuesday – 7:00pm – Joseph

We are blessed to be a praying church! An important tool we have for this is our prayer list. Please use it as a reminder of those in need of your prayers. It is our policy to never take anyone off the list unless told to do so. If you have asked to have someone added to the list and that person is no longer in need of special prayer, please let Pastor Tom know to take that person off the list. Thanks.

Beginning 6 September we will start a 10 week study on Luther and the Reformation to celebrate and study the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation. This will be a quick and fun overview and will demonstrate the lively power of Justification by Faith, and how so few people really believe it – even those who confess it! The studies will be Wednesday evenings at 7:00pm or Thursday mornings at 10:30am. Please see Pr. Tom for more information.
