

Welcome to

Sermon Notes Running Our Race

5 November 2017 All Saints Day

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Matthew 5.1-12 and our response is,
“Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 149

Hymns: Opening #136 Prayer #389 Closing #603

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this week:

Men's Group – Tuesday – 7:00pm

Thursday Bible Study – 10:30am or 7:00pm – Luther: The Movie. Free popcorn and a movie for each family to have to take home.

We are celebrating All Saints Day this morning. Families and/or friends are invited to come forward at the appropriate time and light a candle in memory of the one they represent.

This year we remember:

Sherry Austin

Evelyn Monark

Angeline E. Stephens

Della Campbell

Glenda Grey Fort

Martha C. Tomlin

Esther Licht

Lois Meyerhoeffler

Kenny Wood

Upcoming Opportunities:

- Our Annual Congregational Meeting will be November the 16th at 6:00pm. All are welcomed to come.

The Rev. Dr. Tom Bryant, Pastor

434.534.9355

The Rev. Alan Hill, Associate Pastor

434.660.7341

Jon Williams, Minister of Music

434.944.3611

Jennifer Reynolds, Lay Eucharistic Minister

434.660.2109

Post Office Box 2565

theWELLchurch316@gmail.com

Forest, VA 24551

www.AttheWELLchurch.com

1. Life is a Running a _____ not Climbing a Ladder.

2. Life is a _____ Race.

3. Life is a _____ Race
even though it can feel like Hell.

(Marathon, Theological, Heavenly)