

Welcome to

Sermon Notes

Think Right, or You'll be Sorry!

Matthew 25.14-30

26 November 2017 Christ the King Sunday

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Matthew 25.31-36 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 95.1-7

Hymns: Opening #314 Prayer #83 Closing # 302

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this week:

Men's Group – Tuesday – 7:00pm

Thursday Bible Study–10:30am or 7:00pm–Mary in the Bible

Today we Consecrate the Advent Wreath given in Memory of Martha C. Tomlin by the John Lynn Lodge #34 of the Fraternal Order of Police.

Please stay and help decorate the Sanctuary as we prepare for Advent and Christmas. We will begin immediately after the Service.

Thanks to all of YOU who led worship last week as I was convalescing. The Word and Sacraments were delivered and I love our church. Thanks, Pr. Tom.

Upcoming Opportunities:

- The first Sunday of Advent is December the 3rd.
- The Order forms for Poinsettias are out. Due by Dec 10th
- Christmas Caroling and Party – December 21nd.

1. Something to _____.

2. Something to _____.

3. Something to _____.

That “Something” is _____!

The Rev. Dr. Tom Bryant, Pastor
The Rev. Alan Hill, Associate Pastor
Jon Williams, Minister of Music
Jennifer Reynolds, Lay Eucharistic Minister
Post Office Box 2565
Forest, VA 24551

434.610.9703
434.660.7341
434.944.3611
434.660.2109
theWELLchurch316@gmail.com
www.AttheWELLchurch.com

(Know, Do, Hope, SomeONE)