Our Identity

I John 3:1-7

15 April 2018

Third Sunday of Easter

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Luke 24.36-49 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 4

Hymns: Opening #509 Prayer #173 Closing #535

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this Week:

Wednesday– 7 pm– Men's Group - An Overview of the Old Testament

Thursday – 10:30am or 7:00pm – Bible Study – The Book of Galatians

Today the Liberty University School of Music will be presenting the 11th Annual Night of Worship in the sanctuary of TRBC. This event brings together the Liberty University Symphony Orchestra, School of Music Praise Band, LU Praise, and Combined Choirs for a powerful evening of worship. The program begins at 6PM and is free.

Wednesday April 18 will be the inaugural performance of the Afro-Cuban Ensemble. The Liberty University Percussion Ensemble will be partnering with one of the school's jazz combos and a student wind and horn section to play Afro-Cuban hits such as Mambo King, Papa Gato, and Oye Como Va. This concert is in the School of Music Concert Hall at 7:30 and is free.

We will be having our church Spring Fling Cookout – April 21, noon to 3pm. There is a sign up sheet at the Welcome Center. The church will provide the meat and drinks. Please bring a side or two to share. This will be a great time of fellowship and fun!

Don Shire will have a concert here on April 26th at 7:00pm. Flyers at the Welcome Center. Please come and bring a friend.

Dr. Gwynn Ramsey of the Gideons will be our speaker on May 6th
