

Welcome to

29 July 2018 Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Mark 6.45-46 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 136.1-9

Hymns: Opening #46 Prayer #154 Closing #161

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Sermon Notes

What Good is a Shepherd?

Psalm 23 and Mark 6

Pastor Tom Bryant

Sheep without a Shepherd cannot:

1. Find the _____ - they are “lost”
2. Find pasture – they are _____.
3. Be _____ - they are “vulnerable”
4. _____ - they are “restless”

(way, hungry, safe, rest)
