

Welcome to

7 October 2018 Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Mark 10.2-16 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 128

Hymns: Opening #13 Prayer #111 Closing #170

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this Week:

Wednesday– 6:30 pm – Women's Bible Study - “God of Creation”
7 pm– Men's Group – Being a Man After God's Heart
Thursday – 10:30am or 7:00pm – I Peter

Thanks to all who attended and helped at the Out of Darkness Suicide Prevention walk yesterday. More than 1,400 people were present! It went well and was meaningful to all.

We have a Dementia Support group that meets on Wednesday's at 2:00 led by Bishop Philip Weeks. Please take fliers from the Welcome Center and share with those you know would benefit.

We welcome our new choir and would invite you to join. Their first selection will be next Sunday. Andrew Foster leads the choir and practices are Wednesday's at 5:30.

There is a trip being planned for December 18th to see “Jesus” at Sight and Sound in Lancaster, PA. There is a lot of interest from our congregation for this and if you want more information please see Pastor Tom.
