“Set” - Our Consecration

Isaiah 6

Pr. Tom Bryant

“How” God consecrates us:

1. Isaiah had a _____ Vision – vs.1-4

2. Isaiah responded with an _____ Confession– vs. 5

3. Isaiah was _____ vs. 6 -13

(Glorious, Honest, Consecrated)

10 February 2019 Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Luke 5.1-11 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 138

Hymns: Opening #68 Prayer #433 Closing #440

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this Week:

Wednesday– 5:00pm – Choir Practice

- 6:30 – The current study will conclude February 13 & a new study will commence after we move.

- 6:30 – Men's Group

Thursday – 10:30am & 7:00pm – I Peter

We are so excited about the future location of our Church! The last Sunday in this building will be the 17th of February. It is quite fitting that we will also be baptizing Audrey Hurd that morning. What a symbol of New Birth through the chaos of Water! We will begin in our new location on February 24th at 11:00 am. Thank you for being our Church!

Next week is our last Sunday in this building. There will be a service of “saying goodbye” and reflecting and rejoicing in all we have seen God do within these walls. You will be given “homework” for this week to return next Sunday. Please plan to attend.

Cookies are needed for the ministry at Nottoway Correctional. Bring them in by April 3rd. Thanks and keep Rev. Al and the team in prayer.
