Sermon Notes

17 February 2019 Sixth Sunday after the Epiphany

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Our Gospel reading is Luke 6.17-26 and our response is, “Praise be to thee, O Christ” spoken in unity aloud.

Call to Worship: Psalm 1

Hymns: Opening #81 Prayer #398 Closing #122

At the presentation of our offerings we sing the Doxology # 668

Studies this Week:

Wednesday– 5:00pm – Choir Practice at 1150 Burnbridge Rd

- 6:30 – Men's Group at West Side Deli, Timberlake Rd

Thursday – 10:30am & 7:00pm – I Peter, at 2450 Thomas Jeff

Today is our last Sunday here. It has been a fitting and right place for this season. Please fill out one (or more) of the “memories” sheet so we can collect and rejoice together in these. There is a box at the Welcome Center to place them. Now, we are so excited about moving to 1150 Burnbridge Road. There are maps of the facility showing the best places to park and enter the building. If anyone would like to come out this week and “practice” give Pr. Tom a call for a tour. Please remember our new times are Sunday School – 9:15am and Morning Worship – 11:am.

Today we are Baptizing Audrey Lee Hurd. Blessings upon her & her family. Baptism is the Sacrament where we bury the old and rise to walk in Newness of Life. How appropriate for Audrey to be Baptized on the Sunday that her church is doing the same. Praise be unto the Lord Cookies are needed for the ministry at Nottoway Correctional. Bring them in by April 3rd. Thanks and keep Rev. Al and the team in prayer.

We die to self to rise to life in Baptism

*My Lord God,
I have no idea where I am going.
I do not see the road ahead of me.
I cannot know for certain where it will end.
nor do I really know myself,
and the fact that I think I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so.
But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you.
And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing.
I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire.
And I know that if I do this you will lead me by the right road,
though I may know nothing about it.
Therefore will I trust you always though
I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death.
I will not fear, for you are ever with me,
and you will never leave me to face my perils alone.*
