Announcements and Schedule

2024 February 25 Second Sunday in Lent

May God who gathers us around Himself in the Word and Sacrament to bless us with His forgiveness this morning be your source of comfort, strength and renewal as you worship today. In the Name of Christ, we are all called to come and hear that the Lord is Good!

Prelude – Preparing our Souls through silence, reading and reflection

*Procession of the Cross - Response # 55 – “Glorious Things” vs. 3

Announcements and Prayer Concerns– Sharing our life together.

Congregational Prayer

Invocation and Confession – Entering into the Presence of the Lord

P: In the name of the Father, and of the ☩ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
(Matthew 28:19) C: Amen

P: Make us to know your ways, O Lord, and teach us your paths. Lead us in your truth and teach us, for you are the God of our salvation; for whom we wait. (Psalm 25:4-5) C: Amen

P: If we say we have fellowship with God while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth; but if we walk in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin. (1 John 1:6-7)

Silence for reflection and self-examination.

P: Have mercy on us, O God, according to your steadfast love.

C: According to your abundant mercy, blot out our transgressions. Wash us thoroughly from our iniquity and cleanse us from our sin. Create in us a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within us. Cast us not away from your presence, and take not your Holy Spirit from us. Restore to us the joy of your salvation, and uphold us with a willing spirit. Amen (Psalm 51:1-2, 10-12)

P: Let it be known to you, that through Jesus Christ, the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you. (1 John 1:6-7) He commanded us to preach and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name. (Acts 10:42-43) C: Amen

The Bible is full of stories of God's healing presence in peoples' lives. When Jesus traveled and preached the gospel, it was often in association with healing of the body, mind and the spirit. In Luke 4:40 we read "At sunset, the people brought to Jesus all who had various kinds of sickness, and laying his hands on each one, he healed them."

Later in the New Testament, James calls us to pray for those who are sick. He writes "Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: and the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he has committed sins, they shall be forgiven him."

In light of the above and other Scriptures, the Well Church has decided to offer a Service of Prayer and Healing. This Service will be in addition to the Sunday morning worship. It will be a liturgy of prayer, music, exhortation, and Communion to experience the healing power of God in our congregation and beyond.

If you or anyone you know would like to participate, or if you just want to pray for others who are suffering, you will be gladly welcome. There will be ministers available for prayer and anointing if desired.

We plan to have this service monthly on a Sunday evening beginning in May.

For further information, contact the Rev. Andy Behnke or Pastor Tom. Please keep this ministry in prayer.
